

2024-2025 FAFSA Verification Student Unusual Enrollment History Form

Student Name: _____ Student SCC ID: _____

The U.S. Department of Education has determined you have an Unusual Enrollment History (UEH) which reports you received Federal Pell Grant funds and/or Federal Student Loans at three (3) or more institutions during the past four (4) award years. A review of your financial aid and academic history is required to determine Federal Student Aid eligibility. You must complete this form and submit documentation from every school where federal aid was received for the timeframe listed. The following items are required:

- List all schools attended during the 2020-21, 2021-22, 2022-23, and the 2023-24 academic school years. Select Yes or No to earning credits at each institution.
- If credits were not earned at one or more of the schools reported below, you must attach a signed and dated statement detailing why no credits were earned for each of those instances.
- Provide complete official or unofficial transcripts for each school listed. If transcripts have already been submitted to SCC for admission, registration, or other processes, report which schools here: _____.

Submit all documents together as one application packet in order to have your file reviewed for eligibility. Information will be reviewed to make a determination according to US Department of Education regulations. Reviews submitted with incomplete or missing information are subject to a denial determination.
